School District of Beloit Hires Beloit Memorial High School Varsity Boys Hockey Coach

Beloit, Wisconsin, August 14, 2020 – The School District of Beloit hires James Hoey as Varsity Boys Hockey Coach at Beloit Memorial High School.

Employed with the District for 17 years, Hoey is a social studies teacher at Beloit Memorial High School. Hoey is excited that the team roster has grown this year and that the high school will be able to field both a varsity and junior varsity team. “It’s going to be an exciting season for our boys this year. I look forward to getting them out on the ice and practicing. Working together as a cohesive team, I know we can continue to grow the hockey program, enhance our athlete’s skill-set on the ice, and create winning opportunities for the Purple Knights,” shared Hoey.

Joel Beard, Athletic Director for the School District of Beloit, is happy to have Hoey as the boys hockey coach this year, “I am extremely excited to have Coach Hoey leading our boys hockey program. He will bring passion and energy to our team and the game. He has the know-how and expertise to continue to grow our hockey program. He is 100% a Purple Knight.”

The boys hockey season is a winter sport and is scheduled to open on Monday, November 9.
