Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said, "If I cannot do great things, I can do small things in a great way." I think the quote means that you can't always do big things to improve and make a problem better in a big way. You have to do small things one at a time. I think that he's telling people that he didn't do one big great thing he did a lot of small things in a great way. He believed that everybody should have equal rights. He also wanted people to know that if you want to be treated one way that treat other people that same way. And that's what I think Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. meant.
